

QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 1, JANUARY 2024

Indian Women in International Arbitration

Top News

IWIA successfully organizes Launch Events in Mumbai and Delhi in collaboration with top-law firms of India.

IWIA Membership Applications are now open.

realms – be it law firms, corporations, international organizations, or academia – come together to forge bonds, exchange insights, and champion each other's professional growth.

Beyond our own circle, IWIA is committed to breaking barriers and fostering change.

About IWIA

Embark on a journey with the Indian Women in International Arbitration (IWIA) Group, where boundaries fade, and connections thrive. We are not just a community; we are a vibrant global network of Indian women practitioners and allies, all united by a passion for international arbitration and dispute resolution.

At IWIA, we believe in the power of collaboration, knowledge-sharing, and fostering meaningful connections.

Our platform is a lively hub where Indian women practitioners from diverse

We actively engage with the broader community of practitioners, organizations, and institutions in the field of international arbitration, striving to create a more inclusive landscape.

Our mission is clear: to elevate gender and racial diversity in international arbitration by weaving together the talents, experiences, and voices of women.

Celebrating the Inaugural Launch Events of IWIA - Indian Women in International Arbitration

Amidst an atmosphere charged with enthusiasm and empowerment, we recently celebrated the grand launch events of IWIA in Delhi and Mumbai. This momentous occasion brought together trailblazing women, legal experts, and visionaries, all sharing a common goal: to promote diversity in international arbitration and elevate the voices of Indian women in the realm of international arbitration.

The first event was held in Mumbai on October 11, 2023, and was hosted by Economic Laws Practice. The second event was held in Delhi on October 19, 2023, and was hosted by Trilegal. The events were a testament to meticulous planning and dedication. From the moment guests entered, they were enveloped in an ambiance of empowerment and unity.

The highlight of the evening was the official launch of IWIA. As the inaugural members took the stage, there was an overwhelming sense of pride and anticipation in the room. The mission and vision of IWIA were passionately articulated, resonating deeply with everyone present. The commitment to fostering a supportive community for Indian women navigating the complex landscape of international arbitration was met with enthusiastic applause and support.

Our launch event was not merely a ceremony; it was an immersive experience. Interactive panel discussions, insightful talks, and engaging breakout sessions allowed attendees to actively participate in discussions about seminal topics relating to international arbitration the challenges faced by women in the field, and strategies to overcome them. The energy and determination displayed by attendees were inspiring, reaffirming that IWIA has ignited a flame that will illuminate the path for aspiring women in international arbitration.

Beyond the launch, our event facilitated meaningful connections and networking opportunities. Esteemed legal professionals, both seasoned and emerging, came together, initiating conversations that have the potential to reshape the future of international arbitration in India. The exchange of ideas and shared experiences was invaluable, laying the groundwork for enduring collaborations in the days to come.

The success of our launch event is not just measured by attendance numbers but by the sense of unity and purpose that permeated the room. We received overwhelmingly positive feedback, not only about IWIA's mission but also about the warm and inclusive atmosphere of the event. It was a night of celebration, where we toasted to our shared vision and the bright future that lies ahead.

Our inaugural launch event was more than a gathering; it was a celebration of empowerment, resilience, and the strength of collective voices. The overwhelming response from our attendees has reinforced our dedication to the cause and inspired us to continue our efforts in promoting diversity and inclusivity in international arbitration. As we reflect on the success of these events, we are filled with gratitude for everyone who contributed to making it a remarkable triumph.

Together, we have embarked on a transformative journey. Thank you for being a part of this historic moment. Here's to the remarkable strides we will make together, empowering the current and next generations of Indian women in international arbitration. Cheers to a future filled with equality, opportunity, and boundless achievements!

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS ARE NOW OPEN

Join us at IWIA, where passion meets purpose, and together, we redefine the narrative of women in international arbitration.

Scan QR Code to Apply:

